TIMES OF OUR LIVES

Dear Deng,
Well, Well, Well,
Where do I begin. I guess I'll beginning OK? OK. Wait
a minute
you weren't here in the beginning cause you left, so I'll have to start in the middle where it began.

WAIT A Minute, You're right there was a beginning (Band Camp) before you left and Both of those classes were experiences. We returned here we are at the end of the year with you rushing

We travel the winding roads in an endless search for ourselves and others.

It was so much fun. Then MATH (Geometry) fun kid + I'll see you around.

-Jill Quedenfeld

Love, Elene Brill (hello there!)

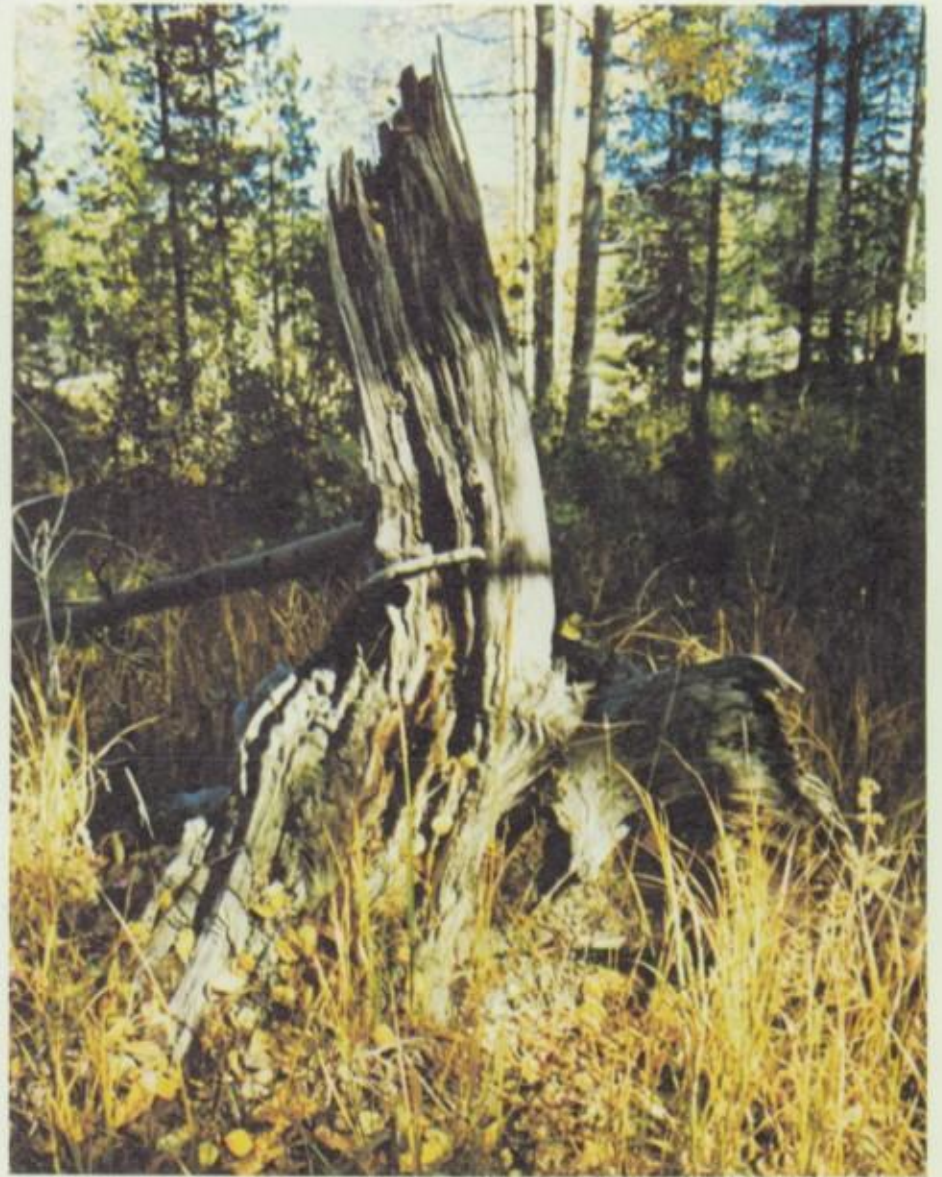

it was so exciting! Then you left. (Pause) And you better CALL ME. OK? OK! E!

then you returned. What a coincidence!

you're in 2 of my classes. First English (rah, rah, blah, blah) you're is 582-7717!!! OK? OK. Well, here returned here we are at the end of the year with you rushing

Let today embrace the past with remembrances and the future with understanding.

Looking back on the times we had
The times were good
The times were bad.

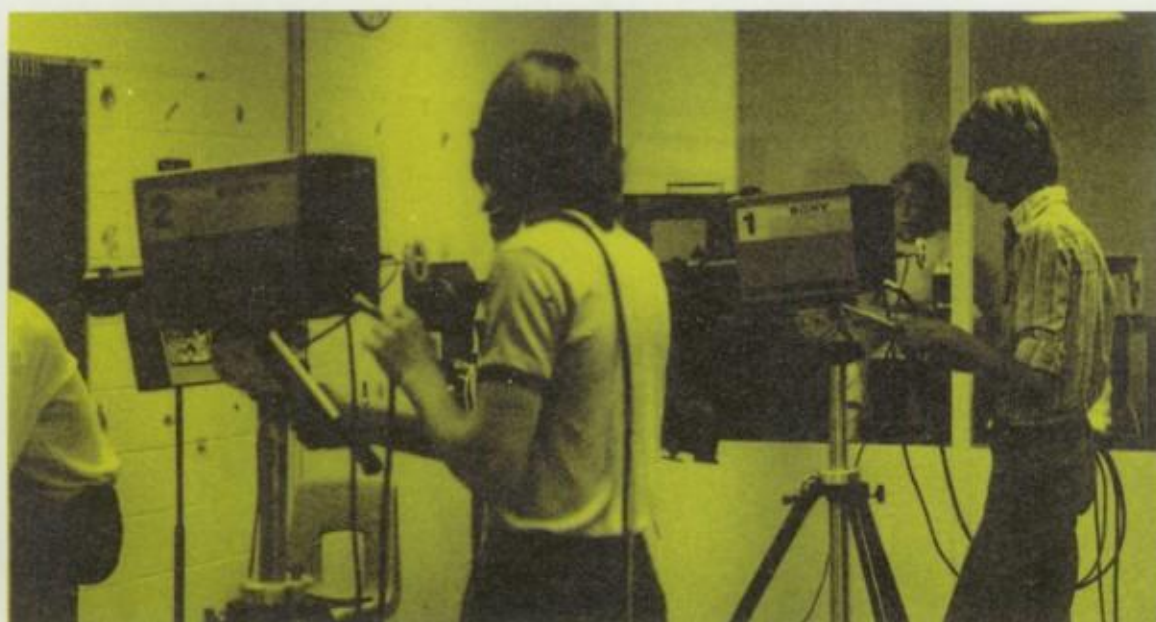

We laughed and cried
 We lost and won
 And now our high school
 Years are done.

IN MEMORIAM

Death is a strange person.
He happens so sudden,
And times without warning.
He can't be controlled;
For he is master of fate.
When death captures a loved one,
He'll live in our minds,
He'll eat at our souls,
And we'll run at his name.
We'll search and we'll seek,
But won't find an answer.
For when death calls upon us
There will be loved ones to join.

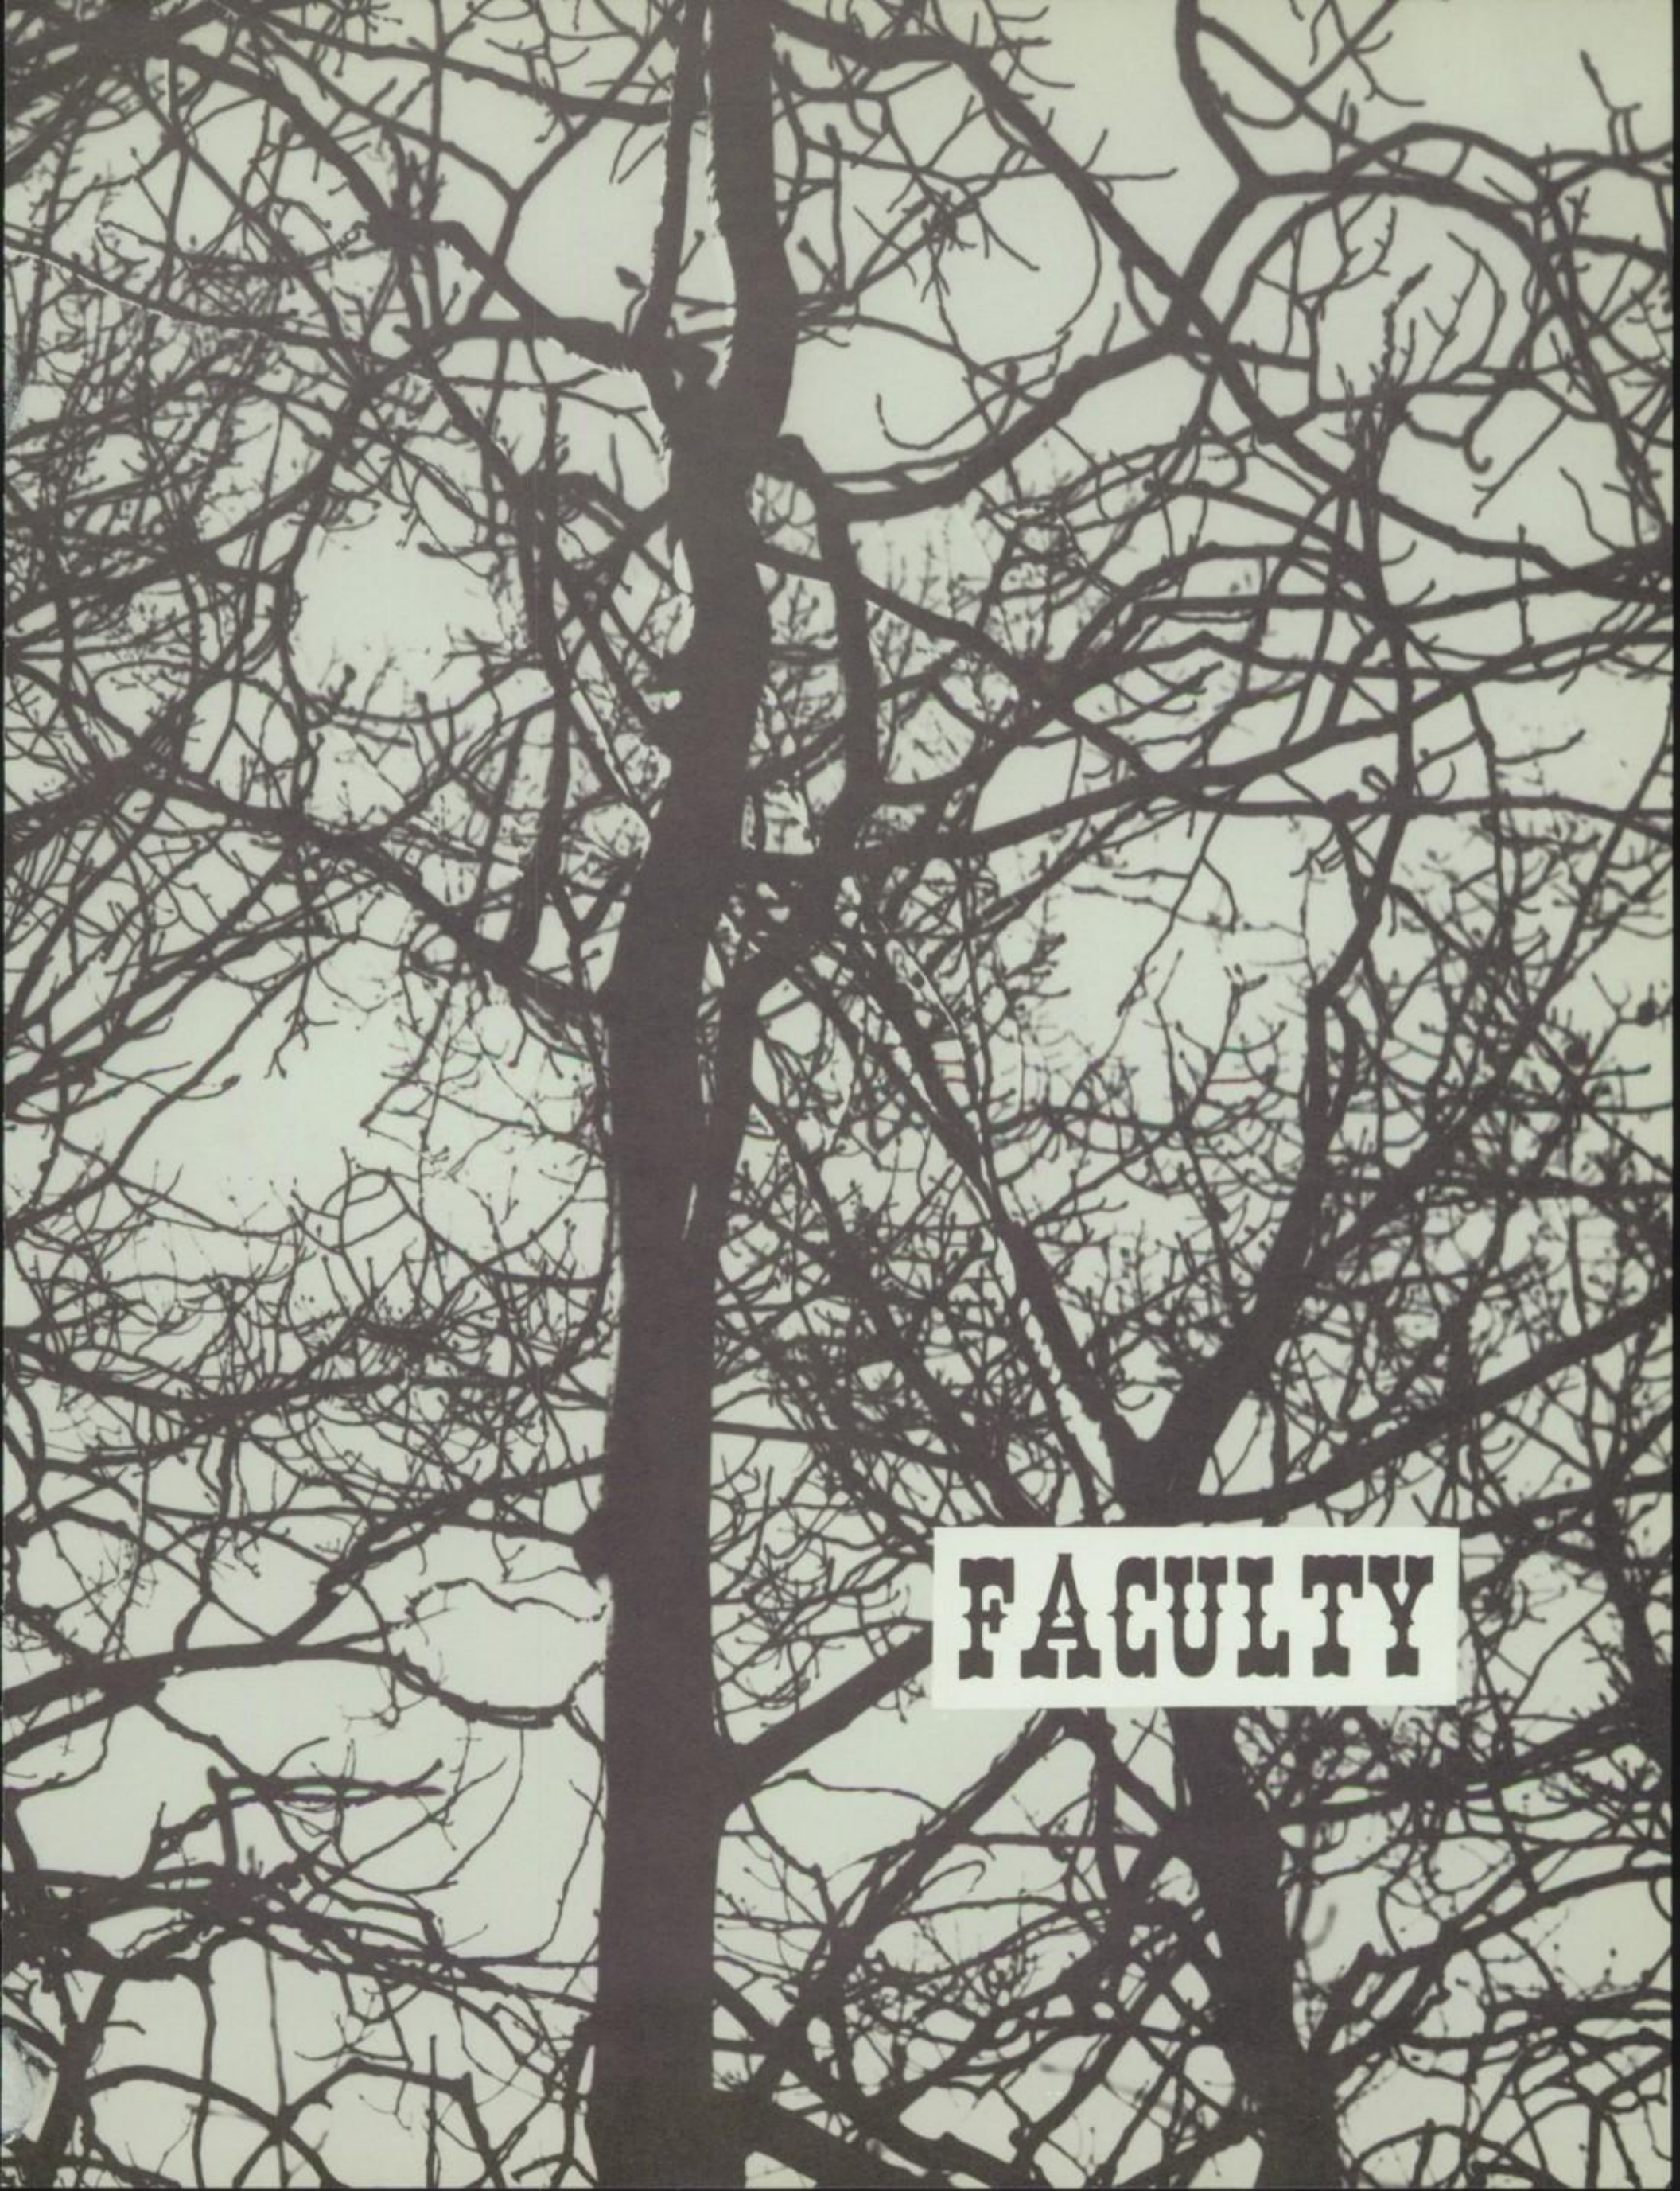

Terie Rinne

The words I never said are waiting somewhere, the things I wanted to do - and never did.

BRIAN MULLER

A low-angle photograph of a bare tree, looking up towards the sky. The tree's trunk is a thick, dark vertical line on the left side of the frame. From the trunk, a complex and dense network of thin, dark branches extends upwards and outwards, filling most of the frame. The branches are intricate and tangled, creating a web-like pattern against a pale, overcast sky. The lighting is soft and even, highlighting the silhouettes of the branches.

Enumerating Dr. Jafar Nagvi's qualities and techniques which are attributed to master teachers could and would go on ad infinitum. Rarely in one's career does one encounter a like dedicated, intelligent, and truly sophisticated person. Everyone at RMHS, students and staff alike, who comes in contact with this dynamic person feels compelled to strive for a higher goal of perfection and to be more involved with learning and humanity.

Congratulations!

Dena,
 This is kinda strange,
 writing in an annual of a school
 I don't go to. Oh, well, that's the breaks. Hope and you get a horse soon or could a ride around together.
 Best of wishes.
 Stay smiling!
 Sheri Cohen

Dena, Congrats on your first year of high school. It's been quite a year. That year is difficult, but you're pulling through. I've gonna have a great time
 at sea world this summer. Bye now,
 Barbara

Berna, Wasn't France just totally excellent? I had a great time. I'm glad you were there and that you came back to Henry. Hope I see you around next year and that we can talk some

Love, Andrea
(ton amie)

French. See you!

IN MEMORY OF JIM KEARNEY

*In life there is good and there is bad.
We grow to take the good naturally,
and learn to accept the bad.
Sometimes, we take it all for granted,
but when it's gone, we knew that it was there.*

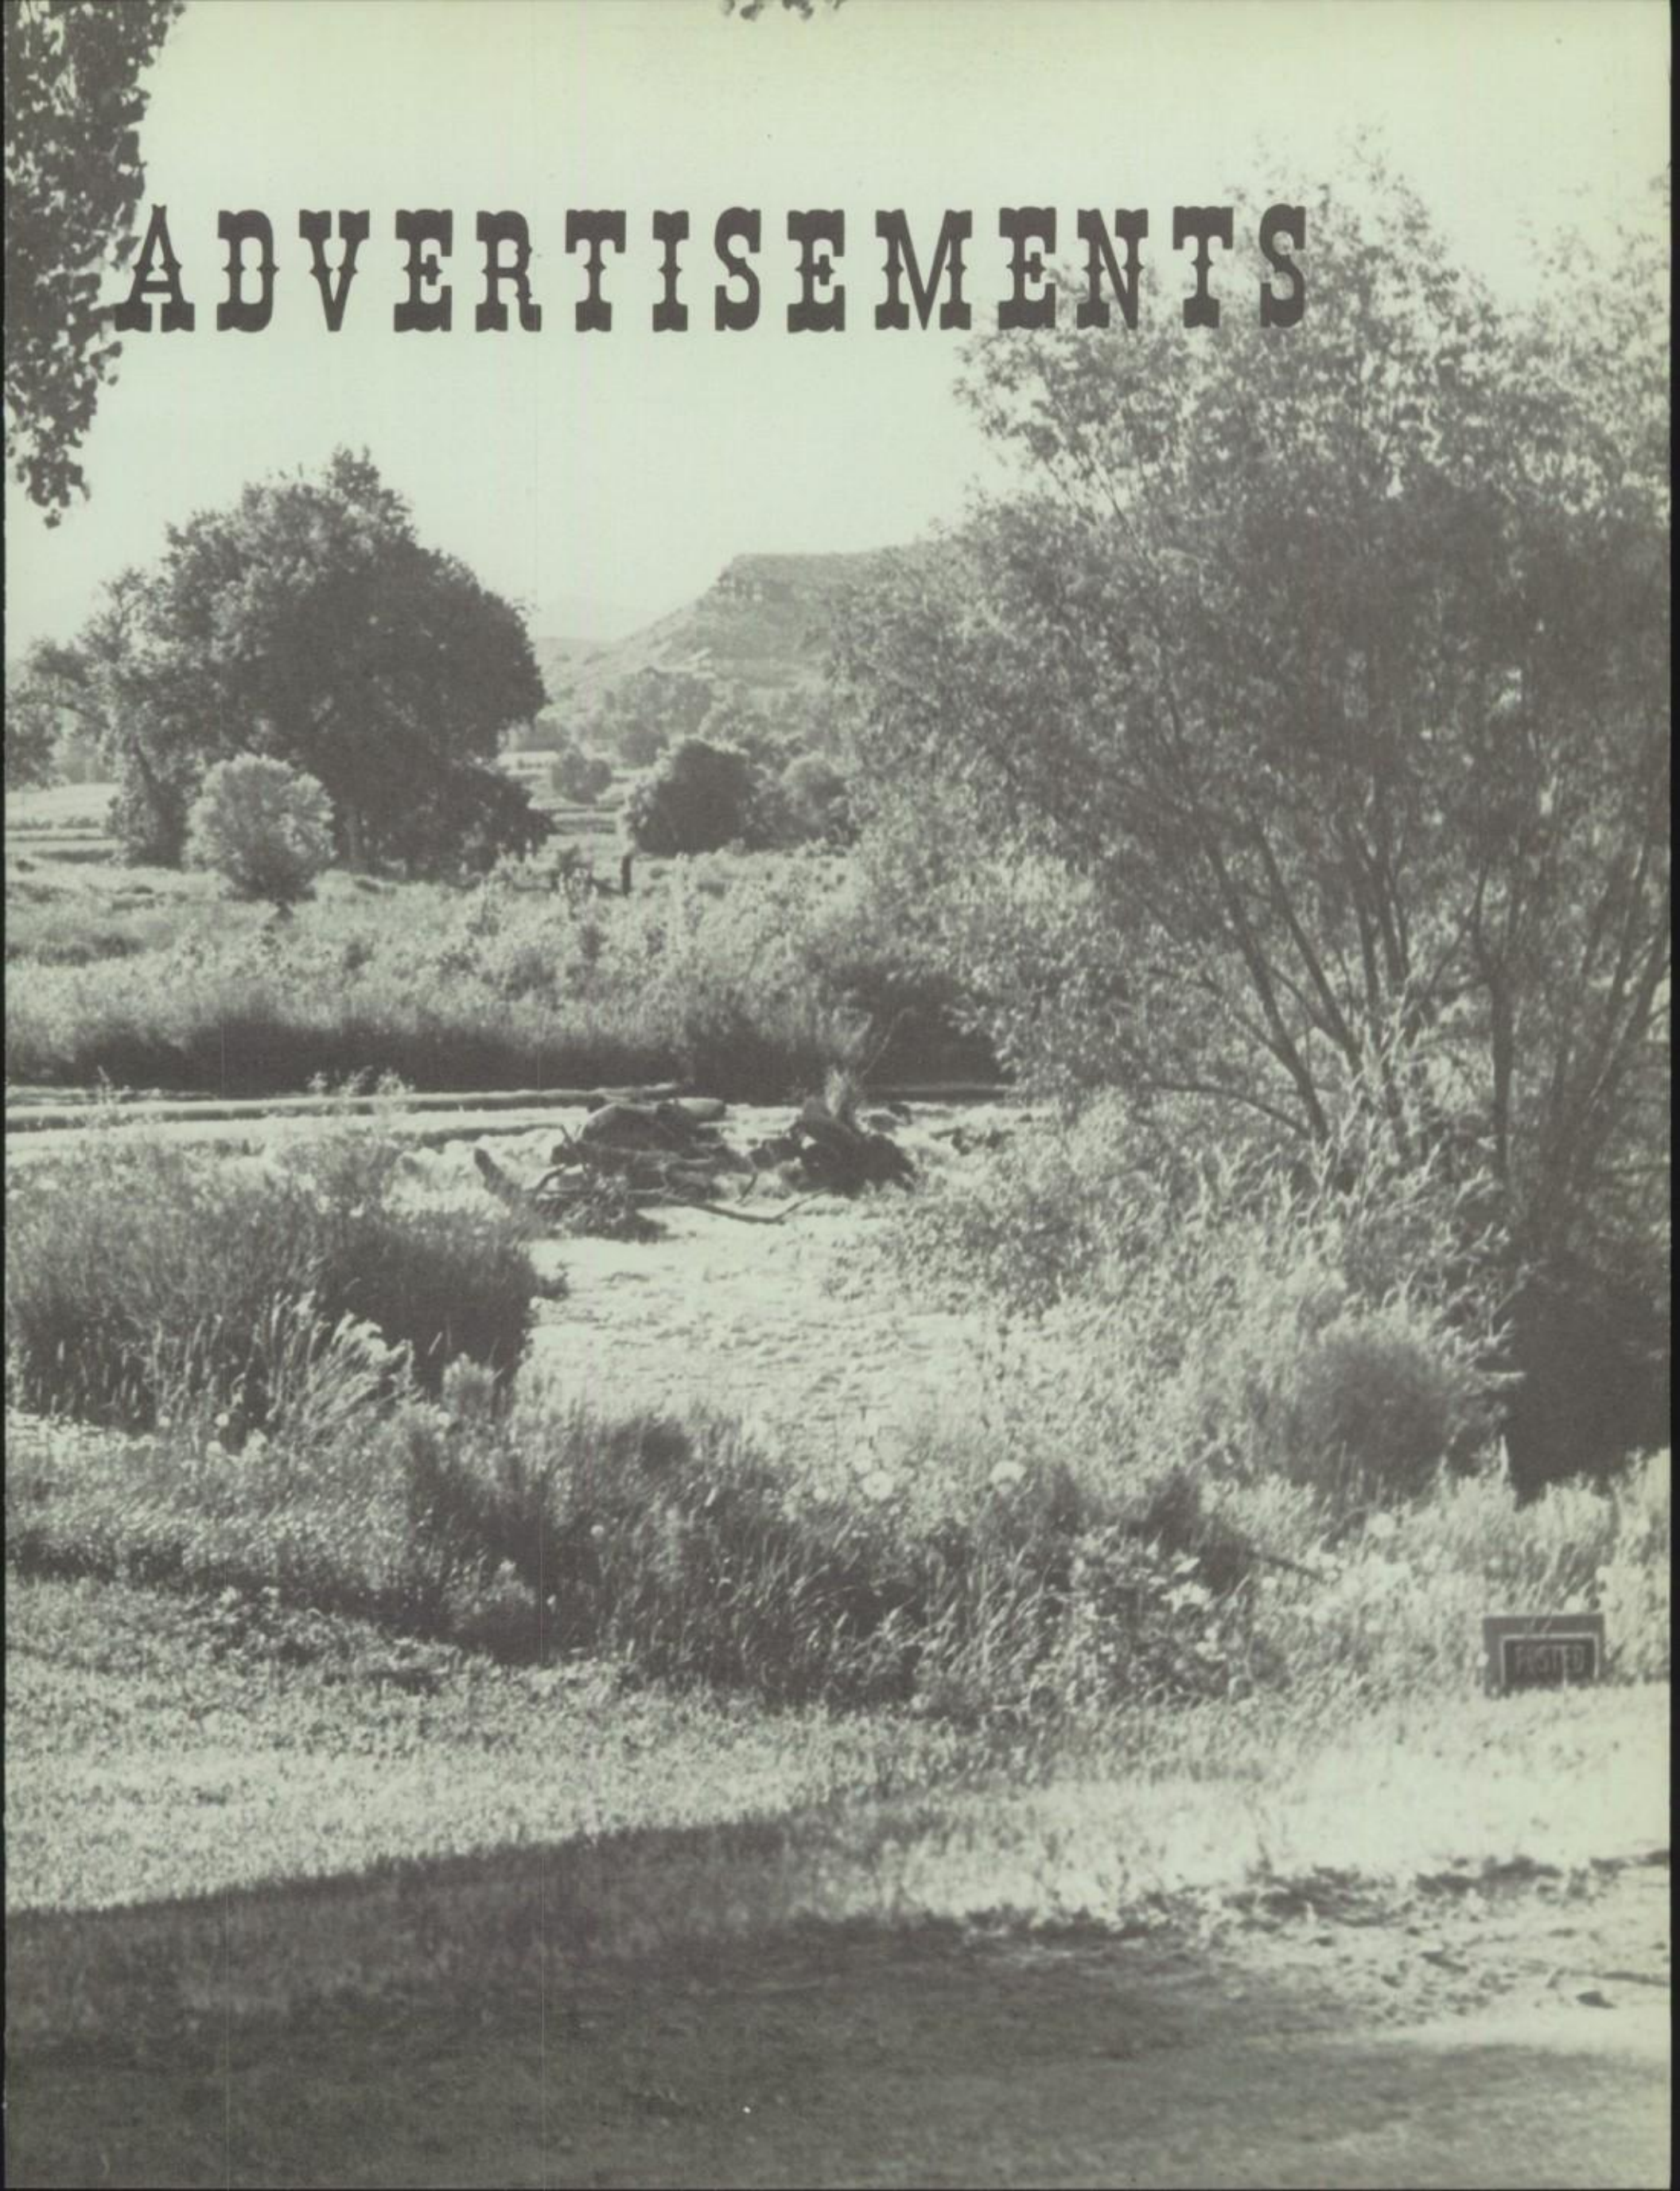

*There will always be memories, each our own.
In our minds and hearts, he'll still be there,
but his face is there no more.
The smallest things, we'll cherish most,
'cause it's these which make a whole.*

*We gave our prayers and shed our tears, though the answer still was no.
Jim had a way that was only his,
I call it in every man's person.
At seventeen, just reaching his prime,
perhaps it is true,
that "only the good die young."*

--Debbie Anton

ADVERTISEMENTS

POSTED

To the graduating class

Accept our respect for solid accomplishment in turbulent times.

Take with you the burden of our hopes built on your youth and vigor.

Know that we wish you the best in the still more demanding years ahead of you.

Believe that happiness,
goodwill and peace are indeed attainable
human goals.

distributive education

On the high school level, DE is available to juniors and seniors interested in entering the business world. It is a complete curriculum supplementing the normally required high school courses. DE students usually put in about 15 hours a week working for a cooperating business firm in the local community. The student might work at a department store, a shoe store, a food market, an automobile service station, a restaurant, a motel or another retail or service operation. The student, of course, is paid for the hours he works, and his experience serves as a laboratory in which he can practice the theory he learns in the classroom.
